COMPETITION TERMS AND CONDITIONS

Terms and Conditions for the BCX Digital Innovation Awards: Official Contest Rules

COMMON TERMS USED IN THESE RULES: These are the official rules ("Official rules") that govern the BCX Digital Innovation Awards. In these rules, "we," "our" and "us" refer to Business Connexion [PTY] LTD ["BCX"], the owner of the awards. "You" and "your" refer to an eligible contestant/entrant, and "your company" refers to the company that the entrant is associated with [i] that is being represented or [ii] on behalf of whom the contestant/entrant has submitted their entry.

Terms and Conditions:

- If you have previously been awarded a place in the BCX Digital Innovation Awards competition[s], you may not enter the same innovation into the competition again.
- However, if you have made upgrades, enhancements or changes to the original innovation that constitutes an alteration to 60% or more of the original innovation you will be permitted to submit the innovation again. Judges will only judge the enhancements.
- By submitting your information, you agree to receive awards-related communications during the commencement of the competition. See our privacy policy.
- By entering this competition, you agree that you and your organisation will not hold BCX, its associated companies, agents, contractors and sponsors liable for any direct or indirect loss or damage based on the activities undertaken during the awards or for any loss or damage sustained to your reputation or business.
- BCX will hold all innovation documentation submitted for the awards as private and confidential. Only authorised individuals who have signed the BCX non-disclosure agreement will be given access to award submissions. Authorised individuals include Judges, the BCX Digital Innovation Awards Core Team and BCX heads of business tasked with the SME partnership prize rollout.
- Information submitted by entrants will only be published in the media if authorisation has been received from the entrant's organisation. This is specific to the publicising of high-level descriptions of the digital innovations which have been recognised through shortlisting or having received acknowledgement for achievement in any of the categories.
- BCX reserves the right to extend the closing date for submissions in any category should it be deemed appropriate.
- BCX reserves the right to cancel any category of the awards during the awards process.
- BCX may amend these terms and conditions without notifying you.
- There is no entry fee associated with the BCX Digital Innovation Awards, all entries are free. Organisations may enter multiple entries in multiple categories as long as the organisation falls within the category restrictions as a business. For example, the organisation is either an SME [small to medium enterprise], or a Corporate or Public Sector Entity registered in South Africa.

- All entries must comply with the submissions format as outlined in the awards entry pack.
- If an entry is inaccurate or incomplete, does not comply with the conditions for entry or is deemed, at the sole discretion of the BCX Digital Innovation Awards Team, ineligible for any other reason, then the relevant entry will be disqualified.
- Entries must be received before the closing date of the awards to be considered. All entries must be submitted using the official entry pack format by midnight (GMT) on the advertised closing date. If you experience any difficulty with the entry process, please contact digitalinnovationaward@bcx.co.za before the closing date.
- All entries must be submitted in accordance with the process outlined by the awards entry pack.
- Patentable and private information disclosed in the entry pack should be so indicated and will then be treated as such and fully protected.
- These terms and conditions are subject to the laws of the Republic of South Africa.
- We may terminate the competition immediately and without notice if we need to do so because of the law.

JUDGING:

- Judges are selected by the BCX Digital Innovation Awards Core Team based on their experience in the field of innovation and technology.
- In the case of an unforeseen or unexpected event that cannot be reasonably anticipated or controlled [also referred to as “force majeure”] BCX reserves the right to replace any of the selected judges before and during judging.
- BCX will consider each entry based on the information provided by the organisation.
- You will be informed whether your entry has been shortlisted via email. The email will be sent to the email address provided on your submission form.
- Shortlisted entries will be required to supply media and other information to BCX to be used for display in BCX’s marketing materials leading up to the awards and during the week of the awards. Entrants authorise BCX to publicly display all images and information provided for this purpose.
- Only shortlisted entries will be invited for a video recording.
- The winners will be announced at the BCX Digital Innovation Awards in November. Information about all stages of the awards from entry to award will be emailed to contestants using the email provided in the entry pack.
- BCX’s decisions relating to shortlisting and selection of winners during judging are final and BCX will not enter any correspondence or discussion with any entrants on any subject nor will BCX accept any submissions, representations or appeals with regard to such decisions.
